

Day 20: COURAGE TO ANSWER HIS CALL

Scripture Reading:

Luke 9:1-2 (ESV)

2 Timothy 1:8-9(ESV)

Observation:

I have lost most of my hearing. Even though I could have used this as an excuse not to do what God has called me to do, I chose to answer His call on my life. Many times, in life, there will be a struggle between the flesh and the Spirit. Perhaps you hear God calling you to be strong and courageous. Yet, you find excuses not to take the step of faith to answer His call.

There is one reason to answer His call. It is the same answer that Jesus gave in the Garden of Gethsemane, “Not my will be done but Your will.” Jesus was speaking about having the courage to answer His Heavenly Father’s call to go to the Cross for you and me. As godly men, we should have the same courage as Christ to answer God’s call.

Application:

- Do you know that God is calling you to do?
- What is holding you back from the courage to answer God’s call?
- How can the Holy Spirit give you the courage to answer His call?
